

For immediate release
Monday, October 10, 2016

Contact: Leslie A. Spears
(405) 445-7091
lspears@myriadgardens.org
Images available here

Scissortail: Myriad Gardens Unveils Gift Store

Oklahoma City, OK -- Scissortail Gifts at Myriad Gardens, located in our south lobby, is now open daily from 9am-5pm Monday through Saturday and 11am through 5pm on Sundays. There is no charge to visit the gift shop in the Crystal Bridge. An open house reception for the new pop-up type shop area is scheduled for Wednesday, Oct 12 from 4-7pm and our membership and the public is invited to attend to discover wonderful Made in Oklahoma products and more.

Owned and operated by Brian Ferrell and Brad Holt, Scissortail is dedicated to sharing a community of passionate people who love Oklahoma, its products, and its people and connecting you with the stories behind them. The shop will offer the finest Made In Oklahoma products and gifts inspired by Oklahoma and its people. In addition to Made in Oklahoma products, Scissortail will also carry garden inspired gifts, plant and gardening books and Myriad Botanical Gardens branded items along with cold drinks and snacks.

Become a member of the Gardens to receive 10 percent off all purchases whenever you shop at Scissortail Gifts at Myriad Gardens. A portion of sales goes toward helping support Myriad Botanical Gardens!

GRAND OPENING EVENT: Wednesday, October 12, 4-7pm

Tasting & Book signing with Steve Lackmeyer with his new book: "Images of Modern America: BRICKTOWN"

About the book: Steve Lackmeyer, award winning local history author and columnist, is debuting his seventh book, "Bricktown: Modern Images of America." The book, being released by Arcadia Publishing, includes never before published color photos taken in 1979 at the start of the area's transformation into Oklahoma's premier urban, historic entertainment district and many more images from the past three decades.